

Sabine Schubert, Director – Klopotek & Partner GmbH

Sabine Schubert studied history, English and American studies in university. In 1987 she joined DTV publishing house in Germany as nonfiction editor. In 1989 she joined Knaur Taschenbuchverlag, and in 1994 she became editor for nonfiction hardcover and paperbacks at Goldmann. In 1996 she became editor-in-chief for the publishing houses Moderne Industrie Verlag and mvg in Landsberg, and in 1998 she became head publisher for the same houses. From 2000 – 2003 she served as CEO for Publishing of the publishing group Dornier in Berlin, Leipzig and Stuttgart. She is trained as a systemic process manager with a focus on design and the monitoring of change processes. Since 2004 she has been director of Klopotek Software, launching projects in the area of contracts/ rights and licenses in England, as well as being responsible for the operations of the English subsidiary.