

Andrew Hansen – Managing Director, Prestel Publishing Ltd.

Andrew has been running the London office of one of the world's leading visual arts publishers for the last eight years, developing the brand in international markets outside Germany. He has experience in both trade and academic publishing and has lived and worked in Europe and the USA. He has worked previously with social science publisher Sage Publications; as a representative for several professional and academic publishers in Europe; and for Gordon and Breach, a major global academic publishing group for scientific and professional books, journals and magazines. He managed export sales for Thames & Hudson and has travelled extensively throughout Asia, the Middle East, Europe and the Americas, having the distinction of selling books to customers in more than fifty different countries around the world. Andrew has spoken at various UK institutions and events and currently resides in the UK with his two children and an array of musical instruments.